

Antique Truck Club of America

Description:

Welcome to the Antique Truck Club of America. Founded in 1971 and based in Boyertown, PA, the ATCA is an organization of people who own or have interest in antique commercial vehicles, especially in their preservation, restoration, and operation. While fun is always at the top of our list, we take our stewardship of these pieces of Americana seriously and have specific goals and objectives:

- * Stimulate and cultivate interest in the restoration, preservation and operation of antique commercial vehicles, as well as the the use and history of these vehicles.

- * Foster a spirit of friendship and cooperation among club members and the general public.

- * Maintain a library of reference materials of antique commercial vehicles available for use by out members
